

Deschutes County - Tumalo

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9

Plainview
See A7 on page 8

Early Laidlaw

In 1912 the residents of Laidlaw, as Tumalo was then known, hung the town founder, W.A. Laidlaw, in effigy. That was right after the town newspaper packed up one night and moved to Redmond where it metamorphosed into the Redmond Spokesman.

Saddleback

For overview of the area see page 19

Road Index
Page 66

